Subject: Agenda Item XIII: Update regarding Orange County Transportation Authority's recruitment for volunteers for the Citizens Advisory Committee.

Background: This item is for informational purposes. Orange County Transportation Authority (OCTA) is seeking applications for volunteers to serve on its Citizen's Advisory Committee. Committee members are required to live in Orange County and to volunteer at least 20 hours per year. The OCTA is a member of the Four Corners Transportation Group. The area where the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino converge is known as the Four Corners area. The Four Corners Group, comprised of public agencies in the Four Corners area, monitors the progress of a series of regional transportation improvements to relieve congestion and enhance the quality of life in the Four Corners area. Applications are due April 12, 2007. Additional information and an application form are attached.
